ANNUAL SEMINAR: Barbara Vines Little, CG

MILL RACE BANQUET CENTER

APRIL 17, 2010

8:30 A.M. - 4:00 P.M

Join us for a day of learning new techniques from an expert and networking with genealogists!

Ms. Little is a full-time professional genealogist and lecturer specializing in Virginia and West Virginia record sources, land platting, lineage applications, and compiled genealogies. Past president of the National Genealogical Society, and a former president and board member of the Virginia Genealogical Society, she was a coordinator of the Virginia Institute of Genealogical Research and is the current course coordinator and instructor for the Virginia track at the Institute of Genealogy and Historical Research at Samford University. She has lectured for the past twenty-five years at local, regional, state, and national conferences on research methodology, Virginia and West Virginia resources, and writing and publishing.

*Certified Genealogist, CG is a service mark of the Board for Certification of Genealogists® used by the Board to identify its program of genealogical competency evaluation and used under license by the Board's associates.

Ms. Little's Topics for the seminar are:

1. Teasing the Silent Woman from the Shadows of History
2. Taxes: Milk Them for All They're Worth!
3. Using All the Census Data: Agricultural, Manufacturing, Population, Slave, Social
4. Born in Virginia: How Do I Find Him?
